EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Thomas Haverstock on August 5, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 12, after "a main body and", --at least two-- has been inserted.

In claim 5, line 8, "the" has been deleted; and lines 10-13 have been replaced by "a main body and at least two arms extending from the main body, a lip formed on a front portion of the main body for engaging with the hand-held controller, a cutout defined in each arm for receiving corresponding engaging portions of the hand-held controller, and a receiving space formed in the main body for receiving a portion of the hand-held controller."

In claim 14, line 1, "13" has been replaced with --12--

In claim 16, line 1, after "adapter", --having a lip-- has been inserted; on line 5, after "comprising", --at least two -- has been inserted; on line 8, after "game controller", --and having a cutout defined in each arm for receiving the hand-held video game controller-- has been inserted.

In claim 22, line 2, after "a body section", --having a lip and-- has been inserted; on line 3, "and" has been replaced by --the adapter having two arms each having--

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The Amendment filed June 7, 2004, and the above examiner's Amendment have overcome the rejection set forth in the Office action sent April 6, 2004.

The limitations of an interactive video game controller comprising a main body and at least two arms extending from the main body, a lip formed on a front portion of the main body for engaging with a hand-held controller, a cutout defined in each arm for receiving corresponding engaging portions of the hand-held controller, and a receiving space formed in the main body for receiving a portion of the hand-held controller, in combination with other presented limitations, are neither disclosed nor taught by the art of record.

Claims 1, 2, 4-6, 8-12, 14-17, and 19-22, therefore, are allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Binh-An D. Nguyen whose telephone number is 703-305-5713. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Andrea Wellington can be reached on 703-308-2159. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
